Arlington, WA 98223

The Pilchuck Tree Farm (PTF) is privately owned by the Pacific Denkmann Company. They generously allow use of their property for permitted non-motorized recreational purposes (horseback riding, hiking, mountain biking, and geocaching) The land is divided into three Tracts: Victoria (aka Glass School or 300th), Pilchuck (aka Morgan or Udell), and Armstrong (aka Bracken).
Pilchuck Recreational Association (PRA), is an organization that PTF has asked to be a liaison between PTF and recreational users.

Your donations contribute to the following:

- Construction and maintenance of the parking lots
- 3 Honey Buckets
- Trail maintenance tools
- Rock and gravel for hardening muddy trails
- Non-vehicular bridge construction and maintenance
- Signs
- Well maintenance

Please remember, the PRA are all volunteers and in order to be able to use this privately owned property, respect what the Pilchuck Tree Farm asks of us, make sure you submit an annual Hold Harmless Agreement, help when you can to clear trails, and be respectful of one another.
